In-depth Single Subjects by Chrissy to empower and activate you for a higher timeline.

Options:

- 1) Summarised notes of your reading
- 2) A short Summary plus the Light Code Poetry to read for a full activation

WHAT'S REQUIRED FOR AKASHIC READINGS?

-Your current full legal name + date of birth (Akashic guides could get confused with a similar name. Data is never shared).

- Which email address is best to send your reading

HOW YOUR READING IS DELIVERED

Within 3-5 working days (often sooner!) I'm given light code poetry, then I type it into an email. This is approx. 7 written pages of the poetry (vs. the notes option).

WHAT'S LIGHT CODE POETRY?

Light Code Poetry has rhythm like a lock and key to join points of cause and effect in the grid of the universal matrix. Once you make this link it helps to become your reality.

WHAT'S AN AKASHIC READING?

The Akashic Records are an energetic library of your origin, skills, lifetimes, missions, karma and healing needed.

I connect with the Lords of Light, Angels, guides, masters, teachers and loved ones, which focus on realigning your true light using positive, divine wording.

Akashic Readings help to activate your soul's heritage and skills. This is so empowering. For example, remembering my soul heritage helped activate skills in Akashic readings, art and healing.*~

However, no readings are alike.

Your guides decide what level of detail is acceptable emotionally for you at this time and may focus on the mission and energies that you used, and less on the location (esp. energy beings such as Angelics). The poetry literally takes you to an energetic place, which is a powerful experience. Often there's healing to realign and activate your soul, crucial in your journey from its depths into your light.

SOUL ENERGY OF EACH LIFETIME

Energies are unique to each origin/lifetime mission/lesson/fulfilment and may not totally be your current soul signature. A signature may include energies of the elements, colours, animal, and even fruit, lightning, stripes and crystals! We have lived many lives, and our origin can partly make up our signature, or not.

SOUL ORIGINS

Your soul origin starts when you split from god source to have an individual experience. This can be millions of years ago, but time doesn't exist. It's like going to your library and opening your book on a page; that's your lifetime now.

There are literally billions of stars/planets/dimensions in this universe and you may NOT originate from the popular ones like Pleiades, Orion, Sirius, Andromeda, Lyra or Arcturus. Please don't be surprised if this is the case or if you are from another universe! You may be an energy being simply tapped into the matrix of divine light! I call this a 'thought form realm', as that's really what energy beings are.

1) WHY DO I GET DIFFERENT ANSWERS ABOUT MY SOUL ORIGIN FROM DIFFERENT PEOPLE?

First of all, is this from posting an image on social media and asking people in general? If they haven't gone into your Akashic records, well... This may not be your origin and they may actually be in your huge soul group and recognise you from a life there. Or the hype of 'people from Sirius look like that' has got in the way. Or you may be transmitting a higher self (past/future lifetime) energy.

Secondly, it depends on the reader's energy, interpretation, specialism, guides and vibration level. We're all viewing life from a different perspective. Or it may be that you started as an interstellar or energy being, with no specific location, darting all over the place!

2) WHAT ABOUT SOUL GROUPS, GUIDES AND LIFETIMES ?

We have thousands of soul buddies in various teams, densities and realms. We meet in lifetimes on space vessels, in energy form, or in physical form, then swap places and are helping each other today. They may show themselves as a form in a lifetime you had together or as a power animal.

We choose many life forms - simply to expand our experience, or give our souls a rest. You may have started out in the 3rd density ~ or in the angelic realms, it doesn't matter, as we learn and give in all of the realms. There is karma and leftover lessons from other galactic lifetimes, not just from Earth.

We have 'death' experiences so that we can approach each life from one perspective and learn something new each time. For example, being born under astrological influences teaches us perspectives, strengths and weaknesses. Parallel souls from another universe also want to experience something new. We also have many aspects and are multi-dimensional beings, but our earth human aspect is here, focusing on this lifetime.

If your thoughts, actions and purpose is a wider scale than third density, then you're awake. Not all star seeds have chosen to awaken now or in this life.

Some souls come to Earth during important epochs like Ancient Egypt and now! ~*~ We are here to use our galactic skills and memories to create social, spiritual and environmental systems for a better Earth. Yes there are three waves of volunteers as Dolores Cannon said. There can be some overlap, and of course these can be on different timeline frequencies. Many of the over 50's are here as way showers to raise vibrations and feed the matrix of divine light across the globe. Many under 50's are here to break down the old systems through protest etc. Then our youth are here to build new systems.

3) WHAT LIFE FORMS HAVE I HAD?

There are billions of star systems out there! Chances are you've had numerous lifetimes in many and they feel familiar. These may be near or far. Examples include, Orion Nebula, Galactic Centre, Antares felines, Cassiopeia avians and lions, primordial dragons, and serpents, and winged lions of Eremor. What a big party for us to all come to Earth huh? ~*

Lifetimes can range from a higher vibrating energy form to any of the lower vibrational densities.

We do not all start in low density then 'evolve' to a higher vibrational density. However, we can integrate our multidimensional selves. I have seen very old souls that are not spiritual or integrated ~ and this is free will ! My guides tell me there is only mission-lesson-fulfilment. And the reason? Everything is a lesson, and you'd only be bored if you didn't jump back and forth after millions of years!

So Many Types of Beings in all Densities!

For example dragons occur in all densities such as primordial ethereal, elemental beings, angelic as well as physical.

Angelic Dragons, Felines and Bunnies!

The Angelic realms are far more diverse than I ever realised and there are many life forms that are classed as Angelics by way of their Angelic mission. There are many types of dragon and feline Angelics for example. I've recently come across a water bunny angelic! There are also energy beings in the 'Mission Realms' tapped into the divine matrix of light and they can work on mapping the stars, as another example. It is very possible that we have had any of these lifetimes in the past as we change missions, lessons and form every lifetime.

4) DOES A STAR SEED ORIGIN READING CREATE SEPARATION IF WE ARE ALL ONE ?

We are all one, but discovering galactic heritage helps realign your strengths.

We separated from Source to explore a creative expression of individuality and duality, for the rich tapestry of life. The idea is to have as many learning experiences so that we can expand our consciousness, which expands all of creation. There is no judgement, only perspective.

Akashic readings help us to realise how diverse and skilled we are, and to dissolve egoic conditioning. These rediscovered skills help to fulfil our mission with a new confidence. It's a very empowering and enlightening experience.

We also need to get used to the fact that we were also extra-dimensional (ED's, formerly ETs), and there's no need to be racist or fearful ~ just proud ~*~ This truly is the opposite of creating separation.
